

MAMMAL SPECIES RECORDED AT LOT 29 BELAH STREET MT.CROSBY

RECORDER & COMPILER P.Grimshaw 1989 – 2009

NO.	SCIENTIFIC NAME	COMMON NAME	COMMENTS
1	Phascogale tapoatafa	Brush-tailed phascogale	Individual observed in car headlights at entrance to driveway (2004)
2	Sminthopsis murina	Common dunnart	Rare (specimen found drowned in Sullage Broadcast Unit near house in 1989)
3	Isodon macrourus	Northern brown bandicoot	Uncommon (Occasional specimens seen dead on roads in vicinity ; diggings seen on odd occasions on property)
4	Parameles nasuta	Long-nosed bandicoot	Rare (specimen found dead beside Wattle Street in 1991)
5	Phascolarctus cinereus	Koala	Uncommon (individual seen in Eucalypt across road from house in mid 1990's)
6	Petaurus norfolcensis	Squirrel glider	Uncommon on property, possibly common in general area (individual occupied nesting box for a short while. Specimen lodged with Qld Museum 2008 from across Wattle Street)
7	Trichosurus vulpecula	Common brushtail possum	Common (2 or 3 individuals currently living in nesting boxes in trees near house)
8	Pseudocheirus peregrinus	Common ringtail possum	Currently roosts in rainforest (2009)
9	Macropus rufogriseus	Red-necked wallaby	Common (up to 5 individuals can be currently seen together sometimes on property 2009)
10	Pteropus poliocephalus	Grey-headed flying-fox	Common (regular visitor to flowering eucalypts on property)
11	Pteropus scapulatus	Little red flying-fox	Occasional (numbers arrive to feed on Spotted gums on property during some flowering seasons)
12	Rhinolophus megaphyllus	Eastern horseshoe-bat	Individual has taken up residence under house (1989). (Hangs from bearers under floor in space between room and front house foundations; often seen hunting for insects around light on back verandah)
13	Rattus rattus *	Black rat	Sometimes live in floor under house.
14	Vulpes vulpes *	Red fox	More often heard calling at night than seen crossing block.
15	Lepus capensis *	Brown hare	Occasional (sometimes seen on mowed areas near front gardens)